

I signed up for the no call list just to avoid these people calling me at all hours of the day and night. I would be happy to allow them to call me if I can have their home phone numbers to call them at my convenience. I know for a fact that chase gives there card holders numbers to insurance companies and attorneys that they do business with and I DO NOT want to be called all of the time.